Ethical statement

Title. Patient-level differential privacy, membership leakage and explanation fidelity in federated brain tumour MRI classification

The study used only publicly released, de-identified images from Figshare, SARTAJ and Br35H, and no new patient data were collected. Ethics approval and informed consent were therefore not required.